

Cape May County 4-H Fair
July 18, 19 & 20, 2019

4-H CLUB GAME OR SALES BOOTH

Any 4-H Club may do a fundraising effort at the 4-H Fair. It may be a carnival type game or selling a product you have made or bought to benefit your club. These booths should have your club name visible and be decorated to tie into the 4-H Fair theme. 4-H games and sales exhibits are given top priority and are not charged a fee, but it is important to abide by the terms of the contract and to adhere to all of the deadlines.

All 4-H Club Game Booths must be registered by MAY 1, 2019.

All 4-H Club Sales Booths must be registered by JULY 1, 2019.

There are three rules governing this application:

1. 4-H Game and Sales Booths must be designed, decorated, etc. by the 4-H club members under the direction of 4-H Leaders and/or parents.
2. Games/Sales Booths must be set up on the Fairgrounds before 12 noon on the Thursday of Fair and remain through the three days of the Fair.
3. All game and sales booths MUST have a contract and be approved by the 4-H Fair Committee.

GAMES OF CHANCE If you are conducting a game of chance or skill, you must secure an Amusement Games License from the State of New Jersey. Applications are available from the Middle Township Clerks Office, but must be processed through the 4-H Foundation, Inc. You must submit your Games application to the 4-H Foundation, Inc. by May 1st so the proper paperwork can be submitted. The license requires a minimum of two (2) months for processing. All workers staffing these booths must be over the age of 18.
